

Download Commission

6: a fee paid to an agent or employee for transacting a piece of business or performing a service especially: a percentage of the money received from a total paid to the agent responsible for the business He gets a commission for each car he sells.a sum or percentage of what has been paid that is allowed to agents, sales representatives, etc., for their services: In addition to her salary, she will get a 20 percent commission for each sale she makes.a. An official document issued by a government, conferring on the recipient the rank of a commissioned officer in the armed forces.Business. Commission (remuneration), a form of payment to an agent for services rendered Commission (art), the purchase or the creation of a piece of art most often on behalf of another A contract for performance or creation of a specific work; Project validation. Commissioning, a process or service provided to validate the completeness and accuracy of a project or venture:commission definition: 1. to formally choose someone to do a special piece of work, or to formally ask for a special piece of work from someone: 2. to give someone the official authority to be an officer in the armed forces: 3. a group of people who have been formally chosen to discover information.... Learn more.SAVE THE DATE: Employer Conference. The Virginia Employment Commission will be having an Employer Conference on April 23rd in Fredericksburg. Learn more about the conferenceHours of Operation. Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays - 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Office will be open continuously through the day and will not be closed for lunch.commission n. 1) a fee paid based on a percentage of the sale made by an employee or agent, as distinguished from regular payments of wages or salary. 2) a group appointed pursuant to law to conduct certain government business, especially regulation. These include from the local planning or zoning commission to the Securities and Exchange Commission or ...The word commission has several very different meanings, but in its most basic meaning, commission is the act of passing a responsibility to someone else. If you receive a government commission, that means you have been assigned a task by the government.2 the doing of an action . a single burglar was responsible for the commission of all the break-ins